

Anti-Slavery Day

Raising awareness of modern slavery and exploitation

Events Calendar

STOP THE TRAFFIK
PEOPLE SHOULDN'T BE BOUGHT & SOLD

Thursday 4th October

Hidden Faces of London: Tamar's 5th Birthday

Come & celebrate Tamar's 5th Birthday with an evening of live music, dance, a retelling of a survivor's story and interviews with the Police and Home Office.

Buy tickets here

Friday 12th October

Human Trafficking and Slavery | Humanitarian responses & support

Hear about the work of the Red Cross in support of people who have been trafficked, and the challenges these individuals face in the asylum system.

Register here

Monday 15th October

Human Trafficking Foundation: Anti-Slavery Day Awards

An awards ceremony to celebrate those who have made an outstanding contribution to the fight against modern slavery.

View the shortlist here

Thursday 18th October- Anti-Slavery Day

Modern Slavery & Exploitation Training: Dates announced

On Anti-Slavery Day itself, the three boroughs will announce upcoming dates for MSE training in 2019. Contact MSE Coordinator robyn.phillips@rbkc.gov.uk to find out more

Thursday 18th October- Anti-Slavery Day

Social Media Campaign and Posters

Online: Retweet, spread the word and help raise awareness of the indicators of human trafficking and what to do if you spot it. #antislaveryday2018
Offline: Look out for Anti-Slavery posters dotted around West London. To request a poster contact robyn.phillips@rbkc.gov.uk

Wednesday 14th November

CEASE Summit 2018

With an array of speakers, this event will present the latest developments and challenges in 'Exposing the Links Between All Forms of Sexual Exploitation'

Register here

City of Westminster hammersmith & fulham

THE ROYAL BOROUGH OF KENSINGTON
AND CHELSEA